104 WEST SEVENTIETH STREET

NEW YORK

April 25th, 1929

Dear Elisabeth Freeman:

I'm sorry you couldn't get in to see Street Scene. If you had let me know that you wanted to see it, I would have used what little influence I have at the box-office. The public seems to want to see it, which I suppose is just another argument against democracy.

Sure, I remember very well the old days when we were trying to save the world; and I think it is a damn good thing that we didn't succeed--don't you?

I'd like to come to Provincetown. I'm probably the only living author who has never been there. But I am sailing for Europe in a few weeks, so I am afraid I won't be able to make it this year.

My best regards to you.

Sincerely yours,

Clara Rice
