

splamen of a rare type. And such a good out too. Whom the Gods love —

Winnie & myself were simply panned. We both had a very deep affection for him. I had heard from him regularly from Paris until a fortnight or so before his death. He was then a philosophically cheerful as ever & wanting to join the Ruman Ballet!

We had a number of champagne line together. Win & I will never forget Peace day: he got some fun out of it on our country ramble. He brought us potatoes for our dinner on the next day — Sunday. We went to some other place same day & he sang all the D.W.W. songs because my young sister who has since died — the day before he left England at 51 St Ann's Rd

London

Mrs

28/4/20

Dear Elizabeth

It was a very kindly thought of you to write to me and give me news of Paul. I had had a very vague note of his being shot or escaping from West Prison, but no details of why he had been condemned.
It was unmistakably Paul it upset me a hell of a lot. It been very harrowing since, with any definite news.

Poor old Paul! It seems incredible thing. That such a dynamo of life and motion and youth should be battered down. He was such a fine

April	LIMERICK.	1919.
For the Limerick Trades and Labour Council.
No. 129
The Workers of Limerick Promise to pay the bearer 10/- TEN SHILLINGS. 10/- Chairman: Geo. Brennan Treasurer: James Casey AGAINST BRITISH MILITARISM.
April	LIMERICK.	1919.