CHAIRMAN'S ADDRESS.

Mrs. PANKHURST will move:—

“That this meeting records its profound conviction that Great Britain should take its place among those countries where men and women possess equal citizen rights, and claims from the Government the immediate enfranchisement of women. This meeting further expresses its high appreciation of the service rendered to Woman Suffrage by those women who have undergone imprisonment for the cause and calls upon other women to stand shoulder to shoulder with them until the final victory is won.”

PRESENTATION TO EX-PRISONERS.

During the meeting a special presentation will be made to all those members of the Women's Social and Political Union who have at one time or another suffered imprisonment for the Cause. The presentation will consist of a special brooch emblematic of the prisongate, and the deliverance they are by this means effected; the broad arrow upon it being in the colours of the Union. At the same time they will receive an illuminated address designed in the colours of the Union by Miss Sylvia Pankhurst, and bearing the following inscription:—

On behalf of all women who will win freedom by the bondage which you have endured for their sake, and dignity by the humiliation which you have gladly suffered for the uplifting of our sex, We, the Members of the Women's Social and Political Union, herewith express our deep sense of admiration for your courage in enduring a long period of privation and solitary confinement in prison for the “Votes for Women” Cause, also our thanks to you for the great service that you have thereby rendered to the women's movement. Inspired by your passion for freedom and right, may we, and the women who come after us, be ever ready to follow your example of self-forgetfulness and self-conquest, ever ready to obey the call of duty and to answer to the appeal of the needy and the oppressed.

Signed on behalf of the Women's Social and Political Union,

EMMELINE PANKHURST.
